

To understand the feeling of suspension...

Imagine that you are going over a peak on a roller coaster. Though you are still in your seat, you have a feeling of lifting upward as if gravity has momentarily changed.

Janna Dyer is a USDF gold medalist who has studied with Georg Heyser, Jessica Ranshausen and Robert Dover. She received a USET/Asmis grant to study with Dr. Reiner Klimke and now trains and competes out of her own Dark Horse Stables in Rocky Ridge, Maryland (darkhorsestables.com).

Send your Solutions idea to DressageToday@aimmedia.com.